

Mystery Man

This English silver fox, with his oval-shaped spectacles that frame his sparkling blue eyes, has an attractive youthful appearance and mischievous smile making him a household name.

His barking mad personality will have you in stitches while some of his canine stories will have you reaching for tissues.

His candid personality made him a favourite celebrity

And in particular with Her Majesty the Queen who bestowed him with an MBE

Through his radio show, he radiates charm and charisma to his listeners while delivering sarcasm and wit from his candy floss lips.

But who is this man of mystery?